

SCREEN DAILY

Before Midnight sells out for IM Global at EFM

11 February, 2013 | By Jeremy Kay

Richard Linklater's Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy romance has sold out at the EFM ahead of Monday's international premiere at the Berlinale.

IM Global closed deals in Germany (Prokino), France (Diaphana), Japan (New Select), Italy (Good Films), Spain (Contracorriente), Benelux (Wild Bunch), Scandinavia (NonStop), Latin America (Sun) and Australia and New Zealand (eOne).

SPC acquired North American and UK rights last month from Cinetic following Before Midnight's world premiere at Sundance.

"These days it's a rare pleasure to sell out a specialty film at such a furious pace, and its a tribute to what a wonderful film Richard and the team have created and the magnificent critical reaction it's receiving already," said IM Global CEO Stuart Ford.